

Friday, April 6, at 7 p.m.
Peace Center of Delaware County
1001 Old Sproul Rd., Springfield, PA
FREE!

The latest film from legendary British director Ken Loach, I, Daniel Blake is, true to form, a gripping, human tale, laced with humor. It features a 59-year-old woodworker (Dave Johns), who loses his job after having a heart attack. His name is Daniel Blake.

Despite being found unfit to work by his doctor, the government denies him benefits and tells him to find a job. Only Loach could tell it in such a way to make you laugh — and cry.

Gruff but goodhearted, Daniel stubbornly tries to put on a good face. He befriends Katie (Hayley Squires), a single mother and her two children, who are also in a desperate situation.

This film is deadly serious in its point of view: the struggle of working people to survive. With Ken Loach's insistence for showing the impact of public institutions upon people's lives, we squirm with discomfort and uneasy chuckles.

In spite of red tape and misfortunes, these characters push back and forward, determined to make their own way. I, Daniel Blake is a movie with a fierce, simple dignity, peppered with humor and an unflinching message that social justice should put human beings first.

2017. 100 min. Drama. Rated R for language. Directed by Ken Loach. Written by Paul Laverty.

Peace Center of Delaware County
First-Friday Film Series

Springfield Friends Meetinghouse
(Behind Mr. Car Wash, at the corner of Old Marple Road and Rt. 320/W Sproul Road)

7 p.m. — Free — Large Screen

Doors open 6:30 p.m. for light refreshments. After-film discussion.

Directions: www.delcopeacecenter.org, or call 484-574-1148

Cosponsored by Brandywine Peace Community